MAPFRE INSURANCE EXPANDS COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM IN 2016

WEBSTER, MA – In an effort to build lifelong relationships and take care of people, MAPFRE Insurance, the leading provider of home and auto insurance in Massachusetts, has announced a commitment to expand its Community Partners program in 2016.

“Because giving back to our community is so important, we’re proud to partner with organizations doing work that has a positive impact on peoples’ lives,” said Jaime Tamayo, President and CEO of MAPFRE North America.

In 2015, MAPFRE employees participated in a variety of efforts that provided support and gave back to the communities in which they work and live. Highlights include:

- More than 2,000 lbs. of food were donated to help more than 800 families across the United States
- 687 toys collected and distributed to more than 300 children as part of holiday toy drives
- Collected 231 pints of blood for 693 people
- 23 young women from the Girls Inc. Eureka! Program received a VIP experience for a Red Sox game at Fenway Park
- More than 200 hats, coats, blankets, and other needed winter items were donated to Veteran’s Inc. of Worcester, MA
- Nearly $10,000 was raised for Making Strides Against Breast Cancer efforts
